

REMARKS

Per the telephone interview between Examiner Liu and Francis Maguire of Ware, Fressola, Van Der Sluys & Adolphson on July 14, 2007, the enclosed substitute specification incorporates the changes made by way of preliminary amendment at the time of entry into national stage and also incorporates the changes made by supplemental preliminary amendment contained herein in which the reference numerals in the claims have been removed and in which amendment has been made to claim 19 to shorten its preamble.

A new independent apparatus claim 31 is presented corresponding to claim 1, but written using means plus function terminology.

The amendments to the claims and new claim 31 are being made via the enclosed substitute specification. All claim amendments and new claim 31 are supported by the original specification and drawings.

Respectfully submitted,
